Beschreibung

For sale: A spacious office space offering 90 m² of well-designed internal area, ideally located in the heart of Paphos. This property is situated in the city center, an area known for its vibrant business community, excellent amenities, and easy access to banks, restaurants, and shopping. With high foot traffic and a variety of businesses nearby, this location is perfect for companies looking to grow and network.

The office was constructed in 2003 and remains in very good condition, featuring modern finishes and plenty of natural light through large windows. The open-plan layout makes it easy to customize the space to fit your company's needs. Air conditioning and secure entry add comfort and peace of mind for both staff and clients.

This is an excellent opportunity for investors or businesses wanting a central base in a sought-after area where commerce thrives. Contact Unique Cyprus Homes to arrange a viewing or for more information about this central Paphos office.
